10 January 1985

Dear Friend:

Because of your interest in national security and terrorism, I am enclosing for your consideration three records of hearings held by the Subcommittee that have been recently published.

The first volume entitled, "DEA Oversight and Budget Authorization" reviews the activities, programs, and fiscal year 1985 budget of the Drug Enforcement Administration.

The second volume is entitled "FBI Oversight and Budget Authorization" and reviews the accomplishments and events affecting the Bureau during the preceding year. In addition, this volume records the discussion between the Subcommittee and the FBI pursuant to forecasting needs and requirements for the upcoming year.

The third volume entitled "Legislative Initiatives to Curb Domestic and International Terrorism" reviews legislative proposals aimed at addressing the growing problem of international and domestic terrorism.

In addition, I am also enclosing a copy of a report entitled "Terrorism and Security: The Italian Experience". The objective of this research effort was to examine the Italian terrorist phenomenon and the security measures developed in response at both the governmental and private levels.

I trust this information will be of value to you.

Sincerely,

Jeremiah Denton
United States Senator
